Meet Wes Greer

NEW MUSIC INSTRUCTOR

Wes has been playing drums since 5th grade and doesn't plan to ever stop! He fell in love with learning how to play beats just on the snare drum and moved that to the drumkit. This love and passion had him playing all percussion throughout his middle school and high school career, eventually leading him to West Virginia University (WVU) to study Percussion with an emphasis in Jazz Drumming.

While at WVU, he also learned hand drumming and other percussion instruments via the world music program. He participated in the African Drum and Dance, Taiko Drumming, Brazilian Ensemble, Gamelan Ensemble, Jazz Vocal Combos, Big Band, and Small Jazz Ensembles. He is now based in Louisville, KY where he continues to play, write, and teach music whenever he can.
